At Our Bethel St. Window and See What We Offer You There for

TATE have placed on sale for a few days only, three complete lines of KIRKENDALL'S WORK SHOES, regular price $4.00 and $4.50. This is a very unusual opportunity for you to purchase these shoes are a wonderfully low price. They were ordered for one of our wholesale customers on Hawaii, and were refused because of the factory's delay shipping. This has thrown them on our hands, and we must get rid of them. Remember these are all brand new goods, and the run of sizes is complete. We are offering them to you at LESS THAN THE OMAHA WHOLESALE PRICE. Take advantage of this chance and fit yourself out with enough pairs of working shoes to last a couple of years.

JUST THINK - $2.45

REGAL SHOE STORE

GEO. A. BROWN Manager Corner of King and Bethel Streets

Ask to See It Done

10 minutes pumping 60 feet high 6 cents

Paris Gasoline Motor Turbine

GEO. H. PARIS

PASTURE

ALFALFA FEED Best of Care Given

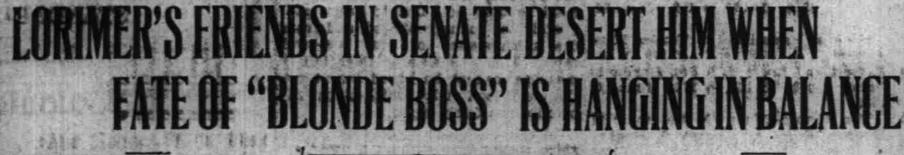

CLUB STABLES TELEPHONE 1109

Phone 1148. Cor. king and South Sts. Successors to W. WRIGHT & CO., LTD.

Kellogg & Dempsey Auto. Motor and Carriage Repairing

Painting, Trimming, Horseshoeing.

Imported Horses For Sale 518 S. King St.

Questionable Senator Is

WASHINGTON, July 13 .- Lorimer day unseated the junior Senator from Illinois by a vote of 55 to 28-two to adopted by a vote of almost two to one, was as follows: "Resolved, That corrupt methods and practices were employed in the election of William Lorimer to the Senate of the United States from the State of Illinois, and that his election herefore was invalid." It was the second vote in the Senate on the same question. On March 1 last William Lorimer was retained by a vote of 46 to 40. Of the Senators who voted against Lorimer last year only one changed his vote today. This was Senator Jones of Washington. But of the nators who voted for Lorimer last year five voted against him today.

These were Senator Shelby M. Cul-lom of Illinois, Lorimer's veteran colleague and dean of the United States Senate, and Senators Briggs, Curtis, mons and Watson. How Senate Voted.

Those who voted to oust Lorimer

Ashurst, Bacon, Borah, Bourne, Briggs, Bristow, Brown, Bryan, Burton, Chamberlain, Clapp, Crawford, Cullom, Cummins, Curtis, Dixon, Fall, Cardner, Gore, Gronna, Hitchcock, Johnson, Kenyon, Kern, La Follette, Lea, Lodge, Martin, Martine, Myers, Nelson, Newlands, O'Gorman, Overman, Page, Poindexter, Pomerone, Raynor, Reed, Root, Sanders, Shively, Simmons, Stone, Sutherland, Swanson, Townsend, Watson, Williams, zona; Smith, Georgia; Smith, Michigan; Smith, South Carolina

Those who voted against the Lea resolution and in favor of lorimer

Bailey; Bradley, Brandagee, Burn ham, Carton, Clark, Wyoming; Crane, Dillingham, Fletcher, Foster, Galling er, Gambie, Guggenheim, Johnson Paynter, Penrose, Persias. Richard son, Smith, Maryland; Smoot, Stephenson, Thorton, Tiliman, Walmore-

Senators paired in favor of the esolution were: Chilton, Culberson, Davis and Owen

Senators paired against were: Baukhead, Dupont, Hayburn and Senators absent and not paired Percy and McLain.

Senator Lorimer did not vote. There are 95 members in the Sen ate, there being one vacancy from Senator Cuilom's vote against Lori mer caused considerable stir. After-

"With my knowledge of the situation in the Illinois Legislature and the testimony in this case, I could not vote to declare that no corruption was used on Senator Lorimer's election." Lorimer finished his three-day speech at 1:35 this afternoon. His peroration was masterly in its dramatic intensity, The "blonde boss" stood squarely in the center aisle of the Senate chamber, feet spread apart, ing down his face. "Senators," he c ed, "if you cast the out, while I have life and strength I'm going to continue trying to make a reputation and a character of never having been a coward.

Crime of Senate. "Oh, no, no, no, no. I'll not resign." His voice rose to a scream. "If or Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

go from this body it will be because more Senators vote for that resolution because of fear. My exit will not be because I am a coward. It will be bethese United States."

He paused, not a sound to be heard in the Senate chamber. The hundreds of fans in the galleries were held motionless in the air. Then-"I'm ready." he drew near the door Congressman first husband, and Berrey cited her said Lorimer.

He turned, breathing heavily, and walked around behind his fellow senthere he sat with his head supported by his hand while the Senate decided his fate.

"Mr. President," said Senator Lea, as soon as Lorimer was seated, "I sug- Gamble, both members of the comgest the absence of a quorum."

Senator Gallinger, President pro tem., other member of the committee, pushgan calling the roll. The few who Senator Johnston of Alabama. were absent entered the chamber. Among them was Senator La Follette, who walked quickly down the aisle and took his seat in the front row.

"Eighty-two Senators have responed to their names," said Senator Gal- Senate. linger. "A quorum of the Senate is Dixon Replies to Charge. Senator Dixon of Montana arose and replied to an affidavit introduced by Lorimer on Thursday, the first day in the senate chamber. He cannot there. He alleged that his wife deof his speech. The affidavit was sign- take advantage of the privilege en- serted him, leaving word that she had ed by R. A. Holland, a Georgia delegate to the Republican national convention. He charged that he had been offered a bribe to vote for Theodore Roosevelt, of whose campaign Senator Dixon was manager.

Senator Dixon called the affidavit a deliberate falsehood. Senator Benjamin R. Tillman-he Ren _llman"-arose. "I desire to make a statement," he said. "I am too weak to read it and ask that it be read by the clerk."

The clerk read it, and when he came to the Senator's reasons for supporting Lorimer and his statement went on. that since his stroke of paralysis he "had given some thought to the hereafter." Senator Tillman buried his hair disheveled, perspiration stream- face in his hands and openly gava way to his emotion.

Lorimer's election invalid was then

Begins Calling Roll. "The clerk will call the roll," said Senator Gallinger.

"Aye," was the response from Senator Ashurst.

against Lorimer. The roll-call proceeded. One by secluded himself from callers. one the Senators answered their names, and nearly every one was a the only remark he made. vote for Lorimer's expulsion. Lorimer heard them all without a change of his colleague, was reached fourteer still the legislative day of last Saturand patience to straighten matters had already voted against him and day, July 6, he did so only after he out.

Man Accused of Bribing to Get Seat Makes Emotional

er with Senator Du Pont.

"Senator Cullom," called the clerk. He cleared his throat and repeated hope it will not influence any Senator "aye" firmly and loudly. Lorimer shifted his position slightly. By no other sign did he give evidence of the blow. The clerk finished calling the roll. Then he read off the names of the Senators who had voted against it. A slip of paper was handed to Senator Gallinger.

"On this resolution the ayes are 55 and the nays are 28," said Senator Galinger, who had voted for Lorimer. "The resolution is agreed to." Lorimer Seems Dazed.

There was no ceremony, no formali-Lorimer, plainly dazed and uncertain, sat heavily in his chair.

All ever more than the clock pointed to 2.02. them—I'm the happiest of men living and blessed by God's sun.

"And I ask not?"

All eyes were turned on the man. There was a moment's silence, just than against it. My exit will not be the presiding officer's announcement to impress itself on his exhausted his WIFE TOO LAVISH with Lorimer arose. He with LADS OF ARMY cause of the crime of the Senate of brought his legs together, reached out and grasped the sides of the desk-"his desk" it had been-and slowly raised himself to his feet.

Rodenberg of Illionis, who had been standing back of the desks, met him. Lorimer smiled. Rodenburg put his half supported him to the cloak room. Other senators came forward and stopped Lorimer in the doorway. There were Senators Dillingham and mittee which had investigated Lori "The clerk will call the roll," said mer's election. Senator Fletcher, an-The call bells rang. The clerk be- ed forward and took his hand. So did

> Congressman William Wilson of Illi nois joined the group. They pushed open the door of the clock room and self. She gave her photographs to army Lorimer passed in. His entrance into men, and when Berrey was called back that room was his passing from the to Virginia she told him she would > declared invalid, it meant that he had ville, but alleged that his wife drove never been legally a member of the guests away by receiving attentions United States Senate. He had no right openly from one of the men staying joyed by former members of the sen- gone to Alaska, but later he heard ate and enter it again.

As Lorimer stepped into the cloak room the chief clerk of the House entered the Senate chamber. He was recognized by the presiding ifficer. "I am directed by the Speaker of DECIDE MAN CAN the House of Representatives," he said in measured tones, "to communi- LOS ANGELES, July 9.- The postal was was once known as "Pitchforl cate to the Senate the following reso- authorities decided today that a man iution:

"'Resolved, That this House has im- issue is involved. As a result, Sampeached Robert W. Archbald, judge of uel Phillips paid over to Postoffice Inthe circuit court now sitting on the spector M. A. Martin $400 which he United States Commerce Court."

Through the swinging doors of the The transaction is without a paralwithin gathered about Lorimer. Several of the Senators had handkerchiefs Phillips both residents of this city, Senator Lea's resolution declaring Lorimer passed on into the conidor. living in Portland, Ore., and each was They were strangers, but they ex- furnished the authorities.

Lorimer smilingly parted from them the money orders came here and was It was the first vote cast,-and and went to the subway. He went to forwarded to Nevada City. Phillips his office in the Senate building and had them cashed at once, as he had

"I have nothing at all to say," was from his sister. That's how the Senate rid itself of William Lorimer. When he yielded her brother, and he was heard from the floor-and it is a matter of inter- when they failed to reach him. And When the name of Senator Cullom est that today, although July 13, was it required much time, correspondence had put forth his most desperate 61fort to break down the stone wall of opposition that had been built up against him. He forgot nothing. He left nothing undone. He attacked the Hearst newspapers because they had brought about the second investigation which ended in his defeat and ne denounced President Taft, Theodore Roosevelt, W. J. Bryan, Senator Kern and al lothers who had a hand in it. But before he gave up he scood back and allowed the vote to be taken. He rose to heights or oratory seldom reached even in the Senate. nly seven had stood by him. One of "Much has been said," cried Lorimer, after he had appaled to the ator Culberson, afterward withdrew Democratic members of the Senate to his vote, explaining that he was pair- support him, "that Lorimer has a pure private life. Sneators, if you believe it, I ask nothing from you on that "Ave." said Senator Cullom briefly. ground. It is no part of this case. I in making up his judgment. "Much has been said of the beautiful home one glance at the beautiful faces, one kiss from each-oh, it is recompense for all my troubles.

Defended by Family.

"They'll not feel that I'm turned out in disgrace," he said as he stood with outstretched arms facing the entire Senate. "They'll form a hollow square and defend me against the world. In that am I not blessed by my merit?" he cried. "And in all these trials and tribula-

my home life is ideal-if such be the

OAKLAND, Cal., July 1. - Within three days of their marriage Jennie E Berrey made the discovery that Quin-Without glancing around he moved tus H. Berrey, her second husband, was toward the Republican cloak room. As infinitely more contemptible than her suing for a divorce today. They were married at Honolulu July 7, 1898, and ators to his seat in the last row. And arm around Lorimer's shoulder and July 10, when she began inviting squads of soldiers to her house and entertaining them lavishly, she ranked him with her earlier spouse, as he al-

> Berrey said that she was very fond of soldiers and expended considerable sums of money in hospitality toward them, besides demanding that Berrey escort her and them to places of amusement. She wrote long letters to enlisted men, he charged, and left instructions at the postoffice that her mail was to be delivered only to hernot accompany him if he gave her the Snatched from his seat, his election! Berrey purchased a hotel at Sierrathat she was without funds; and she also embarrassed him, he said, by circulating the report that his own cash reserve was gone.

FORGE OWN NAME

can forge his own name if a fraud had received on four $100 money or-And the business of the Senate ders in Nevada City about two months cloak room one could see the group lel in postoffice money order annals. according to the inspectors. It involves two men, each named Samuel to their eyes. From the cloak room both brick masons. Each has a sister There he was stopped by some expecting a remittance from his sister, women who had been in the gallery, according to authorative information pressed their sympathy. All had tears At the time the money was obtained in their eyes, and two ben openly one of the two men was working in Nevada City. The letter containing been expecting $400 insurance money

It happened, however, that the

Foods Fried In

Are Deliciously Crisp and Dry

When you use Crisco for frying, the improvement over butter as lard is perfectly plain.

Your Grocer Sells It

Royal Roast Beef

ORDER A STEAK FROM US.

Metropolitan Meat Market

HEILBRON & LOUIS

HOTEL ST. FRANCIS SAN FRANCISCO

AUTO BUS AND UNIFORMED REPRESENTATIVES MEET ALL

THERE IS A SLIGHT DIFFERENCE IN THE PRICE OF ROOMS BETWEEN THE BEST AND THE MEDIOCRE HOTELS.

EUROPEAN PLAN, FROM $2.00 UP UNDER THE MANAGEMENT OF JAMES WOODS

MAKE ARRANGEMENTS NO WTO HAVE THE

French Laundry,

CALL FOR YOUR LAUNDRY 777 KING STREET J. ABADIE, Prop. TELEPHONE 1491

Japanese